

For Immediate Release

January 22, 2008

(Point Richmond, CA) Laissez Les Bon Temps Roule (let the good times roll)! BlueKey Business Brokerage M & A will be having a little Fat Tuesday fun while helping support those still in need after Hurricane Katrina.

“There is still so much work that needs to be done in Louisiana,” stated Julie Gordon White, owner and CEO of BlueKey. “This event will not only help raise money, but it serves as a reminder that there is still a lot of rebuilding to do and people are still in need.” All profits from the event will be donated to LouisianaHelp.org to keep the rebuilding momentum going.

The BlueKey Fat Tuesday party will be held on Tuesday, February 5 at Angeline’s Louisiana Kitchen, 2261 Shattuck Avenue in Berkeley from 4-6 p.m. The $35 per person admission includes a drink ticket and appetizers including Louisiana favorites like hush puppies and sugar covered beignets.

The event also has personal meaning for Gordon White. “My parents are originally from Louisiana and I have many relatives that live there, Gordon White stated. “When it was over, twenty of my relatives were displaced as a result of Katrina. I want to do something that will help them as well as all the people who are still piecing their lives back together.”

For additional information on attending BlueKey’s Fat Tuesday fundraiser, contact Julie Gordon White at BlueKey at (510) 215-5155 x 701 as seating is very limited.
